Corporate bodies where employees are actually represented	Throughout the Group, approaches aimed at securing the participation of colleagues at all levels in management have been structured. It is essential to maintain open communication channels that facilitate effective dialogue with employees and eliminate obstacles to their use. To achieve this, the Message to the General Manager and NAR Suggestion System applications are employed. Additionally, a Global Employee Engagement Survey is regularly conducted, allowing employees to share their questions and suggestions directly with the CEO. This interaction occurs before and during the semi-annual CEO Talks event and the functional CEO Gatherings events. As part of the Young Advisory Board established in 2024, employees representing different functions and geographies where Şişecam facilities are located convene with Şişecam Executive Committee members to exchange views on working conditions and projects.
